Gee I am so (not) surprised.

FYI, Commission is missing the last 'I' in the sentence at the top of page 2 before the bold paragraph.

Not a proposed release. It is the release. Staff provided me the numbers and letter (with table) If they are wrong, I will correct. Problems getting it on the website (as usual).

Hi Matt,

I was just forwarded a copy of the proposed (?) release. It isn't on your website. Am I missing something or was the table pasted in from a different example?

I am attaching what I think is a correct example.

Thanks,
Nancy

Grant,

Kenny and I have finished the LeFlore Co. GPS corrections. There are some GPS coordinates that we did not change due to Hollis already changing some by doing inspections in the last week or so. If we noticed that he had changed them we did not do any corrections to those coordinates.

Thanks,
